

K-love serves me by bringing wholesome, uplifting music to my community and not worry about indecent commercials, language or music while my family listens

This radio program has helped many people come to know Christ, get through some very troubling times by prayer, email or personal communications and has been a beacon of hope to those lost.

I believe it is in the public interest to have Christian music radio stations available to all who would like to hear. We are inundated with hip-hop, rap, hard rock, country and we need to have an alternative for those of us who like to listen to wholesome music
